

- I. Non-school personnel shall not interrogate a pupil in school unless permission is granted by the parents or guardian.
- II. While the school's role shall not become identified with the police and law enforcement, it has an obligation to cooperate with law enforcement authorities and maintain a good working relationship with police authorities.
- III. A student's constitutional rights shall at all times be recognized and protected.